The Editor is solely responsible for the general policies, printing, distribution and sale of this publication. Neither THE NORTH CAROLINIAN nor the Editor assumes responsibility for errors of fact or opinion on the part of contributors. The responsibility of members of the Editorial Staff, as well as of casual contributors, is limited to articles published under their own names. THE NORTH CAROLINIAN is primarily an organ for the publication of reliable genealogical source material of North Carolina.

EDITOR'S PAGE

More than one-third of this issue of TNC has been devoted to the Query Section in order to take care of the large number of queries that have been sent in the past few months. Subscribers may send in 50 words per year to appear without charge in the Query Section, or may send in 100 words every two years. A query may be repeated just once--but not until three to five years after its first publication.

Does anyone know the whereabouts of a book entitled "Revolutionary Soldiers Buried in North Carolina," by Anna Blair?

Mrs. James W. Rogers, Jr., 5012 - 56th Place, Rogers Heights, Hyattsville, Md., is compiling a history of the Stanley family, descended from immigrants to Virginia and North Carolina, with descendants who remained in the East or removed into Georgia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Missouri, etc. Anyone with Stanley ancestry or connections is invited to correspond with the compiler, who also solicits Bible records and miscellaneous information about this family.

Subscribers will speed delivery of their mail if they will see to it that their ZONE NUMBERS are included in their addresses. Please include zone numbers in the addresses to be published in the Query Section, also.

Would like to locate a copy of a Perry genealogy written in the 1800's by Dr. Algernon Sidney Perry of North Carolina. (711)

Several persons are claiming descent from, and joining hereditary-patriotic organizations through, one Joshua Martin, a Quaker, born 1725 in Pasquotank Co., N. C. The fact is that this Joshua Martin died in the 1740's, unmarried, in Pasquotank Co., N. C., with the administration of his estate being turned over to Isaac Albertson by his (Joshua's) two sisters, Sarah and Miriam Martin, in 1751. (Archives, File No. 75.319)

THE MARRIAGE RECORDS OF EDGECOMBE COUNTY, N. C., 1733-1868, will soon be published by Mrs. Ruth Smith Williams and Margarette Glenn Griffin, to supplement their ABSTRACTS OF WILLS OF EDGECOMBE COUNTY, N. C., 1733-1868, which appeared last year. In addition to the marriage bonds on record in the courthouse at Tarboro, and in the Archives in Raleigh, many Bible and parish records will be included. Since the book of wills was so well done, we may look forward with confidence to the book of marriage bonds. Price: $10.00. Address: Williams & Griffin, Arlington Terrace, Apt. 112, Rocky Mount, North Carolina.

REVIEWS

THE JOHN R. FOUNTAIN FAMILY

A. M. Fountain, of Raleigh, published in 1952 a 40-page family genealogy, a splendid record of the descendants of his grandparents, John R. & Molsey A. (Brown) Fountain. John R. Fountain died 1902, aged 93, in Onslow Co., N. C. "His span of years reached out so far that even the oldest of his neighbors could not remember him at less than middle life, possessed of things of substance, and already fixed in high respect by all who passed his way." Address: A. M. Fountain, 5434 State College, Raleigh, N. C.

DESCENDANTS AND ANCESTORS OF RICHARD R. & JANE C. (GLADDEN) LEAMASTERS

A 16-page pamphlet, this compilation by Margaret Herberger contains much data on the LaMaster (Leamasters, Lamaster, Lemaster, Lamaistre, Lamaitre) family, and associated families of: Acton, Boyd, Cagle, Chasteen, Gladden, Kimberlin, Montgomery, Sitler and Whitlatch. Price: $1.00. Address: Margaret Herberger, C. M. R. # 158, Mt. Hawley Road, Peoria, Illinois.

THE FRENCH BROAD--HOLSTON COUNTRY, A HISTORY OF KNOX COUNTY, TENNESSEE

This 573-page county history, ably edited by Mary U. Rothrock, was published in 1946 by the East Tennessee Historical Society. The volume contains a wealth of material, from prehistoric times down to the present. Biographies of many noteworthy citizens were included, and of interest and value to the genealogist is the Appendix (not included in the Index), which contains lists of the county's soldiers and pensioners of the Revolution and War of 1812, county officials and churches. Address: Miss Pollyanna Creekmore, McClung Historical Collection, Lawson McGhee Library, Knoxville, Tennessee.

GENEALOGICAL NEWSLETTER

A genealogical publication that is worthy of nation-wide support is Inez Waldenmaier's GENEALOGICAL NEWSLETTER, now in its third year. Issued quarterly, this 32-page publication will keep you informed as to what is going on in the genealogical world, as the list of contents for the Spring, 1957, issue will bear evidence: News Items relating to Genealogical Research, New Books of Genealogical Interest, Offices having information pertaining to Confederate Pensioners, You May Want to Order These, Newly-published County Histories, Newly-published Family Histories, Let's Swap (query section), and Ahnentafels (ancestral charts covering six generations). The NEWSLETTER'S Supplements further enhance the value of this publication. The current Supplement is "Index to Virginia Court Records in Pennsylvania (District of West Augusta)". This is an index to the minute books of the Virginia Court held within the limits of southwestern Pennsylvania from 1775 to 1780, records of deeds for West Augusta, Virginia, 1775-1776, and Virginia wills probated before the Yohogania County Court, 1776-1781. The District of West Augusta, Virginia, contained the counties of Monongalia, Ohio and Yohogania--a large area covering several present-day counties of southwestern Pennsylvania as well as the northern half of West Virginia. The GENEALOGICAL NEWSLETTER is $2.00 per year, and well worth it! Address: Inez Waldenmaier, 4724 Fifth Street, NW, Washington 11, D. C.

YOUR FAMILY TREE

Another worth-while genealogical quarterly is YOUR FAMILY TREE, "dedicated to those hard pioneers of Western Pennsylvania who did so much toward the development of this country and who had no writers to perpetuate their memory." The best way to describe the publication is to list the contents of the January, 1957, issue: Franklin County Will Book "B"; Bradford County News Items--Marriages; Pennsylvania Marriages (Cumberland Co. & Indiana County); Lower Tyrone Presbyterian Church Cemetery, Fayette County; Old Chester, 1717, now in Delaware Co.; Some Residents of Donegal, Lancaster Co., 1726; Went West; Indiana County Births, 1852-1856; Lycoming County Wills; Taxables of Allegheny County, 1791; Servants and Apprentices Bound and Assigned; Private Cemetery, Miffling Co.; Cemetery Near Bald Hill, North of Lutzville, Bedford County; QUERIES; More information about Armstrong's Men.

Countless thousands of North Carolinians lived in Pennsylvania for a few years (in the 1700's) before settling in North Carolina, and the section of YOUR FAMILY TREE devoted to "Servants and Apprentices Bound and Assigned" is of special interest and value. A typical item reads as follows:"15 October 1745: Richard Johnston, servant from Ire. on Brig't Carolina, to Hugh Hodge of Phila. Tobacconist; 7 yrs. from Oct. 3, 1745. Consideration 12 lb." Persons with Pennsylvania ancestry are urged to send $3.00 for a year's subscription to YOUR FAMILY TREE. Address: Frances Strong Helman, 1082 Maple Street, Indiana, Pennsylvania.

THE EARLY NIXONS OF TEXAS

The text of this family history is mainly taken up with an interesting account of the lives of Robert Thomas Nixon (1827-1897), his first wife, Laura Ann Wood (1832-1872), and his second wife, Frances Amanda Andrews (1843-1939). Robert Thomas Nixon, a native of Randolph County, North Carolina, a son of Zachariah and Sarah (Thomas) Nixon, moved to Guadalupe County, Texas, in the fall of 1852, with his young bride. Zachariah Nixon was a birthright Quaker, but in 1825 was reported married out of unity by Back Creek Monthly Meeting, Randolph County, North Carolina. The Quaker Nixons of Randolph County descend from Zachariah Nixon, a Quaker, (son of Zachariah of Nottinghamshire, England), who died 1691 in Pasquotank County, North Carolina. Margaret Gaziell Nixon, sister of Robert, married David Raspberry Bruton, and they were grandparents of Col. John F. Bruton, onetime chairman of the Board of Trustees of Duke University. Included in the 172-page book are genealogical sections devoted to the Nixon, Thomas, Wood and Andrews families. Many family pictures grace the handsomely printed and bound book. A very nice family history and genealogy, in spite of the lack of an index. Address: Dr. Pat Ireland Nixon, 1022 Medical Arts Bldg., San Antonio, Texas.

AN EARLY QUAKER LETTER FROM NORTH CAROLINA

Contributed by Willard C. Heiss

EDITOR'S NOTE: Mr. Heiss, one of TNC's Contributing Editors, is Indiana's foremost authority on the Quakers of that section, and is compiling a history of Randolph County, Indiana, which was largely settled in early 1800's by Quakers from North Carolina and Tennessee. Mr. Heiss, with his wife and son, resides at 4020 East 34th Street, Indianapolis 18, Indiana.

The following letter was written in 1820 by Thomas Thornburg, of Guilford Co., N. C., to his first cousin, Henry Thornburg, of Wayne Co., Ind. Thomas Thornburg (1772-1833), was son of James and Mary (Moon) Thornburg, and his wife, Mary (1771-1841) was daughter of Joseph and Ann (---?---) Perkins. Thomas and Mary Thornburg lived in the New Garden Settlement of Friends, Guilford County, North Carolina. Henry Thornburg (1775- ?) was son of Thomas and Martha (Ballinger) Thornburg, and his wife, Rebecca, was daughter of John and Mary (Jessop) Hussey. Henry Thornburg and his family removed from North Carolina to Warren County, Ohio, in the Fall of 1814. In March of 1820 they removed to Wayne County, Indiana, and in the Spring of 1822 they again removed to Posey Township, Fayette County, Indiana, where he remained the balance of his life. Henry Thornburg was a Friend (Quaker) and a member of Milford Monthly Meeting, Wayne County, Indiana. He "was by trade a wagon-maker, and he also manufactured farming implements." (References: Hinshaw's Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy, Vol. I., and The History of Wayne County, Indiana (Chicago: 1884), Vol. I, page 604.)

"2nd of 9th month 1820 My Good Frend I Received thy Letter dated the 31st of the 7th month 1820 and at thy Request have read it to numbers of thy Good Friends in carrolinia, we all seemed to Rejoyce together to find that thee was moved to break in upon that solem silence that thee make mention of that has so long taken place among us & after a further pause I thought what if I was to speak a few words

"It was very agreable to me to discover that thee had set thy face new purches ward, and that thee had paid them Red Bretheren of the west a visit

"I may inform thee I have had cimelar & increasing impressions of the kind myself and am inhopes if I attend properly to my business I may be favoured to persue my prospects in the course of a few months I perceive thee has had a faint idea of our troubles in loosing our Son who was ceased last Christmas day with a violent complaint in his head whitch broke inside and fell in uppon his lungs and lived but four days to suffer the anguish of his pain, this was a triing seen indeed but I hope we stood resigned to say they will be done and not ours. my wife has Recently been attacted with a violent fever I have not had my Cloths off to go to bed for sixteen days and nights but by the help of a doctor and the aid of that phisition of vallue we think there is some hopes of her recovery

"the flux and fever is very prevalent in our Land & many fresh Graves at new garden Meeting house; unkle john and aunt Bette lives with Jesse & prudence the ould man is mostly confined to his bed and somewhat childish; Jane Macgrady looks ould & is vary weakly

"there is a Great ado here about moveing to the new country five familys started this week and more would go if they could get money but no money here: we had good crops of wheat and a Great prospect for corn we have plenty of meat milk butter & cheese but distressing times for money but harvest times for the constables I was told by john hoskins lately that he had three hundred warrents put into his hands in one day and a number of Sails appointed and no biders; he had a sail in half a mile of my house sold one hundred dollars worth of property for nineteen & only Got the promis of money for that

"my mother siting by smoking her pipe of pese says do remember my love to them for I allways did love Henry & Becke; Daved & Vancy and their prety little daughter are also present desire to be remembered too; Mallekiah polle & their Little son have been very sick so that polle has not been to see her mother Since she had been Sick but once Jamy & wife is in tollerable health; my self wife & Joseph is all that is left now at home, so that if we could have money & health we have not much els to do but go and see you

"Farewell Mary & Thomas Thornburg."

COMMUNICATION

Contributed by Mr. Arthur M. Reagan,
3920 Keller Avenue, Alexandria, Va.

FROM: The Star, Raleigh, North Carolina, Thursday, March 8, 1810

"Died on the 10th of December, 1809, at the house of Martin Davenport in Burke county, Mr. Thomas Davenport, in the 98th year of his age. He enjoyed his health until a short time before his death. Mr. Davenport was remarkable for a cheerful disposition and for benevolence of heart; it is said he never was involved in a law suit but once, and then by being security for a debt, he was sued and compelled to pay the money. In the latter part of his life he appeared to enjoy the comforts of religion in a high degree.

"He raised six daughters and one son. His eldest daughter, Sophia, the wife of William White, Esq. of Mulberry, in the county of Burke, hath at this time upwards of one hundred of her posterity living; and it has been ascertained that from Thomas Davenport, counting him as the first, there are more than forty of his posterity now living of the 5th generation. Thomas Davenport's five youngest children each raised large families, and it is computed that the posterity of those five now living amount to more than three hundred.

"Died, at the house of Martin Davenport, on the 10th of January last, his wife's mother, Mrs. Sarah Browning, in the 97th year of her age, leaving a large family of children, grand children, and great grand children."

1763 TAX LIST OF ANSON COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

NOTE: This is one of two tax lists preserved for Anson County, the other one being dated 1815. This 1763 list was composed originally of five pages, but unfortunately the third page is lost, which deprives us of part of the J's, all the K's, L's, M's, N's, O's, P's and perhaps some of the Q's. (File No. S. S. 837, State Dept. of Archives & History, P. O. Box 1881, Raleigh, N. C.)

NOTE: In 1763 Anson County embraced all of the present-day counties of Anson, Montgomery, Richmond, Scotland and Stanly, and also the eastern half of Union County. Anson, at that date, was bounded on the west by Mecklenburg County, on the north by Rowan County, on the east by Cumberland and Bladen Counties, and on the south by the State of South Carolina.

WE THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES

From: America, by David Cushman Coyle, 1941, pages 86-87:-

Not even a majority of us in this country are classified as of British ancestry, whatever that means. Here are some figures from the census. The figures are incomplete, largely because millions of Americans have intermarried so widely across these racial or national classifications.

We the people of the United States include about:

40 million of British origin	5 million Jewish
16 million Germanic	2 million French
12 million Negro	1 million Mexican
10 million Irish	¼ to 3/4 million Finn
5 million Italian	¼ to 3/4 million Lithuanian
5 million Scandinavian	¼ to 3/4 million Spanish
5 million Slavic	¼ to 3/4 million Greek
5 million Poles	¼ to 3/4 million Oriental
	¼ to 3/4 million American Indian

Over here we are all immigrants together. Even the American Indians came over from Siberia, ten or twenty thousand years ago. There is no race or creed or culture that has a monopoly of Americanism except the human race, the creed of friendship and good will, and the culture of free speech and free opportunity.

* * * * *

In 1868, when all Revolutionary soldiers were dead, there were 888 widows of such soldiers receiving pensions! There were still 13 of them in 1893!
